String Bass	5

PROGRAM NOTES

Written to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Westridge School in Pasadena, California, this festive overture is full of challenges for every section of the string orchestra. Throughout the piece, the school's anthem "Surgere Tentamus" is used as source material for the varied themes.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The main theme (measure 15) is built on the anthem's first six notes, as is the reoccurring fanfare, which serves as a transition between sections of the piece (mm. 43, 101, and 219). The beautiful subordinate theme (m. 70) is actually the original anthem in inversion, transformed into a lyrical melody in 3/4 time. The unaltered anthem serves as the slow, chorale-like middle section of the overture (m. 141).
