cue ① They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

2 With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.

Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

5 They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.

6 They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

Narr. H As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.
